Legacy Optical Noir Strategy Brief

Legacy Optical Noir Weekend Social Launch

Strategy Research Brief

Stage: strategyresearch

Client: Legacy

Run Owner: ForgeGraph / Atlas agency pipeline

Launch Window: Weekend social launch

Primary Output: Client ZIP containing HTML, PDF, PNG, and manifest files only

Strategic Objective

Launch Legacy Optical Noir as a sharp, premium weekend social campaign centered on dark, cinematic sunglasses imagery. The run must feel polished, fast-moving, and ready for client use without exposing production artifacts or internal markdown files.

ForgeGraph owns the full run end-to-end: strategy, asset direction, media generation, channel packaging, CRM handoff, analytics setup, QA, client approval, delivery, and evidence capture.

Core Positioning

Legacy Optical Noir should present sunglasses as a weekend style signal: confident, refined, minimal, and visually memorable.

The campaign should avoid loud retail language. The tone should be concise, premium, and visual-first.

Strategic cues:

- Noir-inspired contrast
- Premium weekend styling
- Sunglasses as the hero product
- Clean, modern layouts
- Minimal copy
- No people, no logos, no embedded text in generated assets

Target Audience

Primary audience:

- Style-conscious adults preparing for weekend outings
- Buyers drawn to premium accessories, nightlife, travel, and fashion-forward presentation
- Social-first consumers who respond to strong visual mood rather than detailed product explanation

Audience mindset:

- Wants to look composed and intentional
- Responds to sleek product imagery
- Prefers clarity over hype
- Needs fast recognition of the product category

Department Pipeline

- Strategy
 - Define positioning, offer framing, content purpose, channel roles, and success criteria before any assets are produced.
- Brand
 - Translate the strategy into noir-inspired visual direction, campaign tone, and layout rules.
- Channel
 - Prepare weekend-ready social formats and posting guidance for launch use.
- CRM
 - Prepare brief, concrete WhatsApp delivery language for Mike only.
- Analytics
 - Define evidence requirements, manifest structure, asset lineage, and performance tracking placeholders.
- QA
 - Verify every output against format, content, visual, and delivery constraints.
- Client Approval
 - Package approved files into the final ZIP and preserve receipt/evidence.

Asset Strategy

Fresh media assets must be produced through a Codex-backed media worker.

Asset requirements:

- Sunglasses must be the clear subject
- No text inside images
- No logos inside images
- No people or body parts
- No brand marks
- No accidental signage, labels, or readable background text
- Premium optical/noir mood
- Suitable for social launch layouts and client packaging

Recommended asset set:

- Hero sunglasses image
- Square feed image
- Vertical story image
- Detail/crop image
- Dark lifestyle product scene without people
- Clean product-forward fallback image

Messaging Direction

Campaign copy should stay short and concrete.

Recommended message pillars:

- Weekend-ready style
- Noir-inspired confidence
- Premium sunglasses
- Clean, modern visual identity
- Limited launch moment without exaggerated urgency

Avoid:

- Overly promotional language
- Discount-first framing unless provided by client
- Claims about UV protection, lens technology, or materials unless verified
- Any unsupported product performance claims

Channel Direction

Primary channels:

- Instagram feed
- Instagram stories
- Facebook feed
- WhatsApp client delivery to Mike only

Social outputs should prioritize visual impact and quick comprehension. Copy should be minimal and paired with strong product imagery.

WhatsApp Delivery Rule

WhatsApp delivery must go to Mike only.

- .png
- manifest

Do not include:

- Markdown files

- Sunglasses are visually clear
- HTML/PDF/PNG outputs render correctly
- Manifest matches included files
- ZIP contains approved formats only
- No markdown files are included

- WhatsApp delivery is addressed to Mike only

- Final ZIP contents
- Client approval status
- WhatsApp delivery target

- Receipt or confirmation evidence

Success Criteria

The run is successful when Legacy receives a polished weekend launch package with approved visuals, clear social-ready outputs, strict file hygiene, verified QA, and durable delivery evidence. ForgeGraph remains accountable for the full Atlas agency run from strategy through client receipt.
