

Legacy Client Handoff

Prepared for: Legacy

Prepared by: Atlas

Executive Summary

- Legacy Codex Strategy Brief: # Legacy | Optical Noir Strategy & Research Brief

Department stage: 'strategy_research'

Client: Legacy

Campaign anchor: Optical Noir

Launch mode: Weekend social launch package, draft/routing only until client approval and connector access are confirmed.

Strategic Summary

Optical Noir should position Legacy as a Spanish-first luxury eyewear brand for CDMX buyers who want confidence without noise: premium frames, boutique service, and a nighttime city mood that feels edited, intimate, and deliberate.

Campaign thesis:

Optical Noir turns eyewear into the final detail before entering the night: refined, precise, and quietly visible.

Recommended strategic line:

?La noche, en foco.？

Supporting tone: restrained, elegant, assured. No hype language, no loud scarcity, no discount-led luxury.

Market & Audience Signals

| Signal | Strategic implication |

|---|---|

| CDMX is a dense, style-led market with 9.2M residents in the city proper per INEGI 2020 data. | Treat the campaign as CDMX-native, not generic Mexico. Use neighborhood, nightlife, gallery, dinner, boutique, and after-dark cues. |

| Mexico has scaled digital behavior: DataReportal reports 110M internet users and 99M social media user identities in Mexico based on late-2025 data. | Social discovery is valid for launch momentum, but conversion should be routed through high-trust touchpoints like DM, WhatsApp, appointment, or boutique visit. |

| AMVO reports Mexico retail ecommerce reached $941B MXN in 2025, with 77.2M digital buyers. Fashion includes accessories and lenses within the category framing. | Digital buying is mature enough, but premium eyewear still needs certainty: fit, authenticity, exchange/return clarity, packaging, and service. |

| AMVO also flags order accuracy, damaged deliveries, and fulfillment certainty as major post-purchase concerns. | Do not overpromise delivery, stock, warranties, or exact availability. Make service confidence a creative proof point. |

| AMAI NSE 2024 remains a useful planning proxy, but luxury targeting should be behavior-led. | Target style behavior, boutique expectations, gifting occasions, and premium service needs instead of naming income brackets publicly. |

Priority Audience

| Segment | What they want | Campaign hook | CTA fit |

|---|---|---|---|

| Nocturno de estilo | Frames that work from dinner to late-night CDMX without looking performative. | ?La noche, en foco.? Product in low light, reflection, city texture. | DM or WhatsApp concierge. |

| Comprador de boutique | A premium experience: curation, fit advice, packaging, calm service. | ?Lujo en voz baja.? Show details, hands, cases, mirrors, material finish. | Appointment or boutique visit. |

| Regalo con criterio | A giftable accessory that feels elevated and personal. | ?Un objeto preciso para alguien con estilo.? | Gift concierge, exchange clarity. |

| Profesional visual | Eyewear that reads polished across work, dinners, travel, and events. | ?Diseñado para verse bien sin explicarse.? | Shop, appointment, prescription inquiry if confirmed. |

Positioning

For style-conscious CDMX buyers who want premium eyewear, sunglasses, and giftable accessories,

Legacy Optical Noir offers a restrained luxury eyewear experience shaped by nighttime city energy, boutique-level attention, and confident visual identity,

unlike loud fashion drops or generic optical retail, because Legacy can make frames feel like a personal style object, not just a functional purchase.

Proof Points To Use

Use only proof points confirmed by the client or product sheets.

| Proof point | How it supports the campaign | Validation needed |

|---|---|---|

| Curated frame selection | Reinforces boutique luxury and avoids mass-market feel. | Approved product list and public availability language. |

| Premium materials / lens quality | Supports price confidence and trust. | Product specs, supplier-approved claims, warranty terms. |

| Fit or styling guidance | Makes purchase feel personal and service-led. | Confirm appointment, WhatsApp, or in-store consultation process. |

| Gift-ready packaging | Supports gifting angle without discounting. | Packaging photos and fulfillment rules. |

| CDMX boutique energy | Makes brand feel local and culturally specific. | Approved locations, hours, service territory, photo permissions. |

Campaign Pillars

| Pillar | Message role | Example language |

|---|---|---|

| Noir restraint | Establish luxury without shouting. | ?Lujo en voz baja.? |

| Nighttime CDMX | Give the launch a local, cinematic context. | ?La ciudad baja la luz.

Legacy enfoca.? |

| Fit as service | Reduce purchase uncertainty. | ?Te ayudamos a encontrar el marco correcto.? |

| Giftable precision | Add weekend conversion angle. | ?Un regalo que se usa, se guarda y se recuerda.? |

| Quiet confidence | Keep attitude elevated, not hype-driven. | ?Para entrar a la noche sin exceso.? |

Creative Direction

| Route | Visual cues | Best formats |

|---|---|---|

| Optical Noir Hero | Black, graphite, reflection, glass, chrome, close crops, low light. | Reel cover, carousel opener, paid social hero. |

| CDMX After Dark | Doorways, galleries, dinner light, street reflections, car interiors, boutique mirrors. | Reels, Stories, TikTok edits. |

| The Fit Detail | Hands adjusting frames, mirror checks, case opening, lens cloth, side profile. | Carousel, Stories, CRM image blocks. |

| Gift Object | Case, ribbon or wrap if real, handwritten card if real, tabletop stills.

| Stories, email, WhatsApp image, gift post. |

Strategic Guardrails

| Do | Avoid |

|---|---|

| Lead in Spanish. Use English only as a subtle style accent. | English-first luxury clichés. |

| Use restrained confidence: precise, edited, boutique, nocturnal. | ?Hype,? ?viral,? ?must-have,? ?obsessed,? excessive urgency. |

| Build trust through service, fit, packaging, and clarity. | Discount-led luxury or unsupported scarcity. |

| Say ?selección curada? if true. | Exact inventory counts or ?últimas piezas? unless explicitly approved. |

| Route conversion to WhatsApp, DM, appointment, or shop depending on confirmed systems. |

Claims that posting, sending, scheduling, or live publishing occurred without proof. |

Known Constraints & Production Gaps

- No fake live publishing. Until accounts and approvals are confirmed, all social, CRM, and channel outputs must be labeled as draft, routing-ready, or client approval pending.

- Production connector gaps must be explicit before downstream departments claim execution:

- Meta / Instagram access

- TikTok access
- Pinterest access, if used
- WhatsApp Business routing
- Email/SMS CRM platform
- Ecommerce or booking platform
- GA4, Meta Pixel, TikTok Pixel, CAPI, or UTM tracking
- Do not expose exact inventory counts, internal costs, margins, supplier details, tokens, credentials, or unpublished commercial terms.
- Do not make unverified claims about UV protection, prescription availability, designer origin, handmade production, delivery timing, warranty, returns, or same-day pickup.
- All talent, location, UGC, music, and street photography usage must be rights-cleared before publishing.
- Luxury accessibility still matters: captions, alt text, legible contrast, and no text overcrowding on mobile.

Recommended Conversion Architecture

Stage	Primary action	Notes
Awareness	Instagram Reel / TikTok short-form / carousel	Build mood and product desire.
Consideration	Stories, product detail carousel, DM prompts	Answer fit, gifting, price, and availability questions.
Conversion	WhatsApp concierge, appointment, or shop link	Choose one primary CTA before copy production.
Retention	CRM follow-up and post-purchase review request	Keep tone personal, not automated-sounding.

Recommended primary CTA unless ecommerce is fully verified:

?Escríbenos para asesoría.

Downstream Handoff Notes

Department	Handoff requirement
Brand / Copy	Build Spanish-first copy pack from the pillars: Noir restraint, nighttime CDMX, fit as service, giftable precision, quiet confidence. Keep copy calm and premium.
Channel	Create a weekend routing calendar with draft posts, Stories, Reels/TikTok concepts, manual publishing notes, and connector status per channel.
CRM	Write WhatsApp/DM/email response scripts for price inquiry, fit help, gifting, appointment, availability, returns, and delivery timing. Avoid exact stock counts.
Analytics	Define UTMs, campaign naming, lead source fields, and KPI dashboard. Prioritize qualified conversations, appointment requests, CTR, saves, shares, and conversion quality.
QA	Check every asset for unsupported claims, fake publishing language, exposed private business data, spelling, mobile legibility, and brand tone.
Client Approval	Provide a concise approval packet: campaign thesis, sample copy, visual direction, channel calendar, connector gaps, claim checklist, and final go/no-go decisions. |

Client Decisions Needed Before Production

| Decision | Recommended default |

|---|---|

| Primary CTA | WhatsApp or DM concierge. |

| Price visibility | Use approved public price only; otherwise route to concierge. |

| Availability language | ?Selección curada? unless client approves stronger wording. |

| Gifting offer | Packaging and assistance, not discount-first. |

| Publish mode | Draft-only until connectors and client approval are confirmed. |

Evidence

- Legacy Codex Measurement Plan: # Legacy Optical Noir: Analytics & Performance Measurement Plan

Measurement Objective

Measure the weekend social launch of Optical Noir across awareness, engagement, lead intent, boutique inquiries, and purchase-adjacent actions without assuming live publishing or automated platform access.

This plan is designed for a fast weekend sprint in Mexico City, with restrained luxury positioning and Spanish-first audience behavior.

Sprint window: Friday, June 5 to Monday, June 8, 2026

Primary market: CDMX

Campaign anchor: Optical Noir

Tone guardrail: elevated, confident, nocturnal, never hype-driven

Tracking Approach

Because production connector access is not confirmed, this plan uses a manual performance tracker supported by platform exports, screenshots, CRM notes, and link-level UTM tracking.

Connector Gap Notice

No live publishing, ad account access, Meta/TikTok/Google connectors, storefront integrations, CRM automation, or inventory feeds are assumed.

Until connectors are enabled, performance reporting should be treated as:

- Manually captured
- Screenshot-supported where possible
- Directional, not fully automated
- Excluding exact inventory counts, supplier data, costs, margins, tokens, credentials, or private operational details

Core KPIs

| Funnel Stage | KPI | Weekend Target Signal | Watch Threshold | Action Trigger |

|---|---|---|---|---|

| Awareness | Reach | Healthy growth across CDMX audience | Flat reach after 24 hours | Refresh hook, adjust posting window |

| Awareness | Impressions | Consistent delivery per asset | Low delivery on one format |

Rebalance toward stronger format |
Engagement	Engagement rate	Strong saves, shares, profile taps	High likes but low saves/shares	Shift copy toward styling/gift intent
Consideration	Profile visits	Rising after posts/stories	Traffic spike without inquiries	Improve bio CTA and story link clarity
Consideration	Link clicks	Clicks from story, bio, or paid CTA	Low CTR vs reach	Test sharper Spanish CTA
Intent	DMs / WhatsApp inquiries	Boutique-style questions, fit, availability, gifting	Repeated unanswered questions	Add response script and FAQ story
Intent	Appointment or visit requests	Quality signal for CDMX boutique feel	High inquiries but few next steps	Add concierge close and booking CTA
Conversion Proxy	Add-to-cart / checkout starts, if visible	Directional purchase intent	Strong clicks but no purchase proxy	Audit landing page, CTA, mobile load
Brand Quality	Sentiment	Premium, curious, aspirational	Confusion on product/category	Clarify Optical Noir offer and use case

Optimization Decision Matrix

| Signal | Likely Meaning | Recommended Action |

|---|---|---|

| High saves, low clicks | Audience likes look but needs more reason to act | Add styling context, gifting cue, or boutique CTA |

| High DMs, repeated questions | Content lacks key purchase details | Add FAQ story and tighten captions |

| High story exits before CTA | Sequence too slow | Move product and offer earlier |

| Strong comments, low DMs | Audience interested but not prompted | Add direct concierge DM prompt |

Price-focused questions only	Luxury value not clear enough	Reframe around design, materials, styling, boutique experience
Strong engagement from non-CDMX audience	Targeting or hashtags too broad	Tighten CDMX cues and placement strategy
Premium sentiment but low urgency	Brand fit is right, action driver is soft	Use weekend-only appointment or gifting prompt without hype

- Reporting cadence
- Optimization decision rules
- Permission to use approved screenshots/exports in final recap
- Confirmation of which channels have actual access versus manual observation only
- Legacy Codex Launch QA Report: # Legacy QA / Compliance Report

Optical Noir Weekend Launch Package

2. Executive QA Summary

| Area | Status | Notes |

|---|---|---|

| Brand consistency | Pass | Tone aligns with restrained luxury, nighttime CDMX energy, and confident boutique positioning. |

| Spanish copy quality | Pass with minor watchouts | Spanish-first direction is appropriate.

Avoid hype, overuse of English, and discount-heavy phrasing. |

| Asset readiness | Conditional pass | Creative direction is clear, but final files must be verified before scheduling. |

| Privacy/commercial constraints | Pass | No exact inventory, costs, margins, supplier details, credentials, or tokens should be exposed. |

| Connector readiness | Hold | Production publishing, CRM, analytics, and catalog connectors are not confirmed. |

| Launch readiness | Conditional | Package is ready for client approval, not yet ready for live deployment. |

3. Brand Consistency Review

Approved brand direction:

- Spanish-first luxury tone
- Boutique, elevated, restrained language
- Optical Noir as the anchor campaign concept
- Nighttime Mexico City mood without feeling cliché or tourist-facing
- Confident, quiet premium positioning
- No exaggerated hype, urgency, or mass-market sales language

Copy should feel like:

- ?Discreet para miradas con presencia.?
- ?Óptica de noche. Siluetas con intención.?
- ?Una edición para quienes eligen con calma.?

Copy should avoid:

- ?Imperdible?
- ?Corre antes de que se acabe?
- ?Mega promo?
- ?Lujo extremo?
- Excessive emojis
- Overstated scarcity claims
- Exact stock references

4. Spanish Copy QA

Check	Result	QA Guidance
Spanish-first language	Pass	English should be limited to campaign/product names or intentional brand terms.
Mexican market fit	Pass	Use natural Mexican Spanish without slang that lowers the luxury tone.
Luxury restraint	Pass	Keep sentences short, deliberate, and polished.
CTA clarity	Pass	CTAs should be direct but refined: ?Agenda tu visita?, ?Ver la colección?, ?Escríbenos por WhatsApp?.
Claims risk	Watch	Avoid unsupported claims like ?la mejor óptica de CDMX? or ?edición exclusiva? unless legally/operationally approved.

Required copy rule before publishing:

All captions, CRM replies, and ad text must be reviewed once in final layout to confirm line breaks, accents, punctuation, and visual balance.

5. Asset Readiness

Asset Type	QA Status	Requirement Before Launch
Instagram feed posts	Conditional pass	Confirm final exported files, aspect ratios, spelling, and brand color consistency.
Instagram stories	Conditional pass	Confirm tappable areas do not overlap text or product details.
Paid social variants	Conditional pass	Confirm platform-safe text, no unsupported scarcity, no prohibited claims.
Product imagery	Conditional pass	Must show eyewear clearly, not only atmospheric mood shots.
CRM templates	Pass	Scripts are usable once final links and contact routing are inserted.
Landing/product links	Hold	Must be verified before any CTA is scheduled.
Tracking links	Hold	UTMs must be generated and tested before launch.

Asset risk:

The creative direction is launch-ready, but QA cannot approve final deployment until the actual production files and links are validated.

6. Privacy and Commercial Compliance

The launch package must not expose:

- Exact inventory counts
- Product costs
- Margins

Decision: Approve for Client Approval

Live Launch Status: Hold

The Legacy Optical Noir package is strategically and creatively consistent with the campaign brief. The Spanish-first luxury positioning is appropriate, the CRM tone is usable, and the measurement/channel structure is directionally sound.

However, live deployment cannot be approved until production connectors, final URLs, tracking, asset exports, and client-side publishing responsibilities are confirmed.

11. Handoff Notes to Client Approval

Please present the package to the client with the following approval points:

- Confirm final campaign name and Spanish copy direction.
- Confirm final product/landing URLs.
- Confirm approved imagery and creative exports.
- Confirm publishing owner for each channel.
- Confirm whether paid media is included in this weekend sprint.
- Confirm CRM contact routing and response owner.
- Confirm analytics access and reporting expectations.
- Obtain explicit approval before scheduling or publishing anything live.

Recommended client approval language:

?Legacy?s Optical Noir launch package is ready for review and approval. Live publishing will begin only after final assets, links, tracking, and channel access are confirmed.?
